Seventh-day Adventist Church
"Will there be room for him?"
A small fragment of humanity, priced in worth with the pig his mother cherishes what is he worth to Christ? to you?
Until recent years this little boy of the South Pacific Island would have grown up in devil worship, knowing continual fear more acquainted with hate and bloodshed than gentleness and Christian fellowship. He would have been called "Cannibal" by men outside his dark little world, had he survived the cruelty of jungle law, the multiplied diseases that fester among his people, so the question is "Will there be room for him?"

I am so glad I can answer this question in the affirmative Yes, there is room, there is hope for such as he, Mission schools like Beulah Missionary College on Tonga have told his people about Jesus and his love. Today Beulah is crowded beyond capacities.

Last Sabbath, September 14, a mission extension offering was taken up in the Appomattox Seventh day Adventist Church and in all her sister churches throu out the entire world for just such work as this. No. 1 Completion of classrooms and dining room at Beulah Missionary School, in Tonga, Australasian Division. No 2 Tribal school in Taiwan and boy's dormitory at Indonesian Union Seminary — Far Eastern Divison Middle East Division. No. 4 Academy auditorium at Belem Brazeil — South American Division No. 5 Work for Moslems Southern African Division No. 6 Bilarge Boy's dormitory at Spicer Memorial College in India, Southern Asia Division. All these projects with seven others mentioned in the Inter - American Division. The Northern European Division and Southern European Division. I am sure many hands will be opened and great will be the blessings through their liberality Deut 15:8. Luke 6:38. William E. Carpenter Pastor

We stopped by the fascinating plant and flower gardens of Mrs. L. M. Wilkes on the outskirts of town. Her greenhouse is always producing. What fascinated us most of all was a single tomato plant in a plant bed and, so help, the plant measured twelve feet across and has regular customers who has regular customers who want her plants and flowers.

Deepest and most heartfelt expressions of sympathy is extended from the entire community to the Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Maxwell family and relatives in the rather sudden death of William Forest Maxwell, who passed away Sunday in the Farmville hospital about 7:0 a.m. Forrest was known, and highly regarded by all for his quiet kind and gentle manner, and will be greatly missed.

The writer would like to pass on this little message of hope and comfort from St. Paul's pen to all who are bereaved of loved ones: "But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethern, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and arose, even so, them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." Verses 1,2, of Thess. 4 "Wherefore comfort one another with these words" v 18:Read the whole message Verses 13-18 Please.
